

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 22, 2008

CONTACT:
Jackie Clark
301-987-7113

WEYMOUTH DISTRIBUTING'S BILL WATSON TO CHAIR NAMA SPRING EXPO

General Manager 'Found a Real Fit In the Vending Industry'

Chicago, IL—Jan. 22—Weymouth Distributing Company's Bill Watson will serve as the 2008 National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA) Spring Expo Chair, NAMA Executive Vice President and COO Dan Mathews, NCE, announced today. The Spring Expo, the world's largest vending, coffee service and foodservice management exposition, will be held Wednesday through Friday, March 26-28, with education programs Wednesday-Friday, and trade show Thursday and Friday, March 27-28, at the Mandalay Bay Resort and Convention Center in Las Vegas.

In announcing the appointment Mathews said, "We are excited that Bill has agreed to serve as Spring Expo Chair. We look forward to collaborating with him as together we kick off our most prestigious and highly awaited trade show."

The NAMA Expo is the world's largest vending, coffee service and foodservice show featuring more than 300 exhibitors and 5,000 attendees from around the world. It is the one place where industry leaders can network with colleagues, inspect an impressive selection of new products and equipment, view the hottest technology and service, find excellent educational sessions, and get a terrific snapshot of short- and long-term industry opportunities.

The Spring Expo festivities include a Golf Outing Wednesday, Quality Coffee Certification Program, Wednesday, trade show hours Thursday and Friday; educational programs Wednesday-Friday, Supervisor Development Program, Tuesday-Friday, and Spring Fling at the close of exhibit Thursday evening. To learn more about the Expo visit www.namaexpo.org.

A graduate of Azusa Pacific University in Azusa, CA, Bill earned a BS degree in Business Management with an emphasis on Organizational Leadership. He is a native of Houston, TX, but has lived in the Los Angeles area for the past 26 years. Bill and his wife Kathryn reside in Pasadena. They are both photographers and have recently completed a book with Eduardo Xol (Extreme Makeover on ABC).

Prior to his career in vending sales which began in 2003, he sold amusements. In August 2005, Bill accepted the position of general manager with Weymouth Distributing in Los Angeles, CA, where he was given the opportunity to effect change in the way vending distribution is done in the state.

An active member of the CAVC, Bill is on the board and legislative and membership committees. In 2006, CAVC named him Supplier of the Year. Bill has attended the NAMA-MSU Executive Development Program and plans to earn his NCE certification soon.

Of the vending industry Bill said, "I have found a real fit in the vending industry and expect to spend the remainder of my career here. The industry has allowed me to create some great working relationships as well as friendships that I am sure will last a lifetime."

Concluded Mathews, "On behalf of our members, I want to thank Bill for his commitment to NAMA and the industry, and eagerly look forward to seeing everyone in Las Vegas in March."

NAMA is the national trade association of the food and refreshment vending, coffee service and foodservice management industries including on-site, commissary, catering, & mobile. Its membership is comprised of service companies, equipment manufacturers and suppliers of products and services to operating service companies. The basic mission of the association, to collectively advance and promote the automatic merchandising and coffee service industries, still guides NAMA today as it did in 1936, the year of the organization's founding.